

Companies that invest

MAHLE Metal Leve S.A.

In the first quarter of 2007, MAHLE Metal Leve adhered to the program "In Good Company" of the Sao Paulo Stock Exchange (BOVESPA), including 8 projects in the areas of culture, education, health and professional qualification. The support to this initiative of the BOVESPA reinforces the dissemination of the company's social responsibility and it is according to its commitment with the sustainable development regarding collaborators, suppliers, customers and the community in general.

“Social responsibility for us is...

Being conscious of the commitment that we have next to our collaborators, suppliers, customers, communities around, and we will seek to contribute through the principles of the sustainable development for a fairer society.

The MAHLE Program of Social Responsibility establishes as aim the education and the dissemination of Voluntary service. This way, we believe that our incentive and social participation make difference for the construction and application of good practices that qualify and raise citizen's awareness about their roles before the society.”
